EFAC Board of Directors Candidate Interviews Summary

Attendees: Dick Presser, Sue Montivoni, Kara Lusby, Sharon Anson (via phone)

Location: Sue Montovani's home

Purpose: To interview two candidates for the 5th Board member position

The four Board Members held a meeting to interview both Lindsey Grossnickle and John Sullivan (separately) as potential candidates for the 5th Board member position.

- John, a former DNR officer, was the first candidate interviewed
- Lindsey Grossnickle, a mediator and lawyer in Columbia City, was the second candidate interviewed
- John shared his DNR experience as it pertained to water-related issues and dispute-related situations
- Lindsey shared her experience as a mediator as it pertained to property and community-related dispute resolutions
- All four Board members shared their perspectives on the role and responsibilities with the candidates
- All four Board members asked questions to both candidates
- Once the interviews were completed, the four Board members discussed the candidates
- Dick Presser and Sue Montivoni indicated that they believed John Sullivan was better suited for the 5th Board member position
- Sharon Anson and Kara Lusby indicated that they felt Lindsey Grossnickle was better suited for the 5th Board member position
- The four Board members agreed to take the decision back to Judge Reed. Letters would be written to the judge by Dick and Sue, as well as by Kara and Sharon stating their recommendation for the 5th member.
